Between Picturesque and Surrealist Audacities

Castle<sup>at</sup> Kilbride

Romanian poet and artist, Ion Georgescu came to Canada recently. He has painted since childhood, his first painting dates from 1965. Always wondering about nature and her beauties, his paintings translate the movements of his soul in images and lyrics. He has published two books and has opened several exhibitions of paintings. His Art gallery is available on the Internet (Flickers) where he exhibits about 200 works in oil each one accompanied by a poem.

On display March 3 until May 27, 2012.
